Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Today, the Teamsters Airline Division joins our nation in remembering the devastating attacks on September 11, 2001, that forever changed the country and the aviation industry.

We honor the airline workers and passengers whose lives were taken, the first responders who ran toward danger, and all the working people who never returned home that day. Their courage, service, and sacrifice will never be forgotten.

We also recognize the resilience and dedication of the pilots, mechanics, flight attendants, dispatchers, ground workers, and countless others who have kept our aviation system safe and moving in the years since.

Twenty-five years later, we continue to hold their families, loved ones, and co-workers in our hearts. We will never forget.

In solidarity,

The Teamsters Airline Division
